1 A Yes, they were outdated by then.

2 Q Moved away from that business?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Used to make a lot of adding machines, right?

5 A Correct. Accounting machines, they were called.

6 Q Accounting machines?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Was there a difference?

9 A Yeah -- no, they didn't make adding machines. They
10 made accounting machines.

11 Q Okay. But you stopped making those, right?

12 A Well, yes.

13 Q They just weren't selling? It was outdated
14 technology, correct?

15 MR. HERMES: Object as to form.

16 THE WITNESS: Right.

17 BY MR. LYTZ:

18 Q Focusing on the carbonless paper business for a
19 while, did NCR license its technology to other
20 companies?

21 A To my knowledge, yes.

22 Q What licensees do you recall?

23 A The main one was Wiggins Teape and Jujo Paper.

24 Q Jujo is in Japan?

25 A Japan, yes.

1 Q When you first started work, what was the
2 relationship with Appleton Coated Paper Company?

3 A That they were a part -- producer for NCR.

4 Q So they manufactured the paper for NCR under
5 contract?

6 A Correct, right.

7 Q But were not a licensee?

8 A Correct. So was Mead Paper at that time producer.

9 Q Did Mead become a licensee?

10 A Not to my knowledge.

11 (Discussion off the record.)

12 (Deposition Exhibit No. 797 marked for 13 identification.)

14 BY MR. LYTZ:

15 Q Dr. Schwab, I've handed to you what's been marked as 16 Exhibit 797. This is a document entitled "An
17 Overview of Materials Research for New Generation NCR
18 Paper"?

19 A Right.

20 Q If I may, let me just introduce this for the record
21 and then I'll ask you a couple of questions.

22 It was apparently a presentation given
23 by you in October of 1972, and apparently Wiggins
24 Teape, NCR and API were at a research and development
25 meeting. Do you remember this document?
